Notice Of Right Of California Residents To Opt-Out Of The Selling And Sharing Of Your Information

While we do not sell or share your personal information in exchange for money, we may sell or share your personal information for other valuable consideration. You have the right to tell us NOT to sell or share your personal information. You have the full and free right to opt-out of our disclosure of your personal information to any third parties where the disclosure constitutes “selling” or “sharing” as defined by the California Privacy Rights Act. You may exercise your right to opt-out without fear of discrimination for doing so. To opt-out of our selling or sharing of your information, meaning, we will not disclose your information to third parties for any monetary or other valuable consideration, you can do any of the following:

- Opt-out or change permissions within the App
- Email support@gather.life
- If you are unable to submit an opt-out through the App or via email, please call \(855\) 749-2283 for assistance and a representative will assist in meeting your needs.

You can have an authorized agent submit a request on your behalf. To submit an opt-out through use of an authorized agent, you must provide that agent with written permission signed by you to submit an opt-out on your behalf, except when using an opt-out preference signal. The authorized agent may call our toll-free privacy line at \(855\) 749-2283 to make the opt-out request and for directions for submitting the proof of authorization and the authorized agent's proof of identification to us. We maintain the right to deny any request from an authorized agent that does not submit sufficient proof that they have been authorized by you to act on your behalf.

A request to opt-out need not be a verifiable consumer request. However, we may deny a request to opt-out if we have a good faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a request to opt-out is fraudulent. If we deny your request to opt-out, we shall inform you of our decision not to comply and provide an explanation as to why we believe the request is fraudulent.

We Do And Will Use Or Disclose Your Sensitive Personal Information For The Following:

1. To perform the services reasonably expected by an average consumer who requests those services;
2. To detect security incidents that compromise the availability, authenticity, integrity, and confidentiality of stored or transmitted personal information;
3. To resist malicious, deceptive, fraudulent, or illegal actions directed at the business and to prosecute those responsible for those actions;
4. To ensure the physical safety of natural persons;
5. For short-term, transient use;
6. To perform services on our behalf;
7. For purposes that do not involve inferring characteristics about the consumers.

Notice Of Rights Of California Residents To Limit The Use Of Your Sensitive Personal Information

As provided by the California Privacy Rights Act, you have the right to limit our use or disclosure of your sensitive personal information to uses that are necessary to perform the services or provide the goods reasonably expected by an average consumer who requests those services or goods. The only sensitive personal information we collect is your geolocation data and you can turn off this functionality at any time within the App, no request is needed.

Notice Of Rights Of Virginia, Colorado, Connecticut, And Utah Residents Regarding Processing Of Sensitive Data And Right To Opt Out Of The Sale Of Personal Data, Processing Of Personal Data For Targeted Advertising, And Profiling In Furtherance Of Decisions That Produce Legal Or Similarly Significant Effects

As provided by the Virginia Consumer Data Protection Act (“VCDPA”), Colorado Privacy Act (“CPA”), Connecticut Data Privacy Act (“CTDPA”), and the Utah Consumer Privacy Act (“UCPA”), we do not process your sensitive data without obtaining your consent. We do not process sensitive data concerning a known child without processing such data in accordance with the federal Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act (15 U.S.C. § 6501 et seq.). Additionally, you have the right to opt out of the sale of your personal data to third parties, the use of your personal data for targeted advertising, or profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects concerning you. You may exercise your right to opt out without fear of discrimination for doing so. To exercise your right to opt out of the sale of your personal data, the use of your personal data for targeted advertising, or profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legal or similarly significant effects concerning you, you can do any of the following:

- Sen an email with details of your request to support@gather.life.
- If you are unable to submit a request via email, please call \(855\) 749-2283749-2283) for assistance and a representative will assist in meeting your needs.

A request to opt out must be a verifiable request. We may deny a request to opt out if we are unable to authenticate the request through commercially reasonable efforts, or we may ask for additional information that is reasonably necessary to authenticate the request.

Retention Of Personal Information

We will retain each category of personal information in accordance with our established data retention schedule as indicated above. In deciding how long to retain each category of personal information that we collect, we consider many criteria, including, but not limited to: the business purposes for which the Personal Information was collected; relevant federal, state and local recordkeeping laws; applicable statutes of limitations for claims to which the information may be relevant; legal preservation of evidence obligations; and administrative considerations.

3. Third-party Vendors

We may use other companies and individuals to perform certain functions on our behalf. Examples include managing scheduling of vehicle related services.. Such parties only have access to the personal information needed to perform these functions and may not use or store the information for any other purpose. Subscribers or site visitors will never receive unsolicited e-mail messages from vendors working on our behalf.

4. Business Transfers

In the event we sell or transfer a particular portion of its business assets, information of consumers, contractors and applicants may be one of the business assets transferred as part of the transaction. If substantially all of our assets are acquired, information of consumers, contractors and applicants may be transferred as part of the acquisition.

5. Compliance With Law/Safety

We may disclose specific personal and/or sensitive personal information based on a good faith belief that such disclosure is necessary to comply with or conform to the law or that such disclosure is necessary to protect our employees or the public.

6. External Links

The App contain links to other sites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such websites. To help ensure the protection of your privacy, we recommend that you review the Privacy Policy of any site you visit via a link from the App.

7. Children Under The Age Of 16

The App is not intended for autonomous use by children under 16 years of age. No one under age 16 may provide any personal information on the App without consent from their guardian. We do not knowingly collect, sell or share any personal information of children under 16 without a guardian's affirmative consent. If you are under 16, do not use or provide any information on the App without the consent and oversight of a guardian. If we learn we have collected or received personal information from a child under 16 without verification of parental consent, we will delete that information. If you believe we might have any information from or about a child under 16, please contact us at the email address below.

8. How We Protect The Information That We Collect

The protection of the information that we collect about user of the App is of the utmost importance to us and we take every reasonable measure to ensure that protection, including:

- We keep automatically collected data and voluntarily collected data separate at all times;
- We use internal encryption on all data stores that house voluntarily captured data;
- We use commercially reasonable tools and techniques to protect against unauthorized access to our systems;
- We restrict access to private information to those who need such access in the course of their duties for us.

9. International Visitors

We do not target, market to, or offer our products or services to consumers outside of the United States. You agree not to submit your personally identifiable information through the App if you reside outside the United States.

You Can Submit Any Of The Above Types Of Consumer Requests Through Any Of The 2 Options Below:

1. Send an email with the details of your request to support@gather.life
2. Call \(855\) 749-2283749-2283)

Procedure To Appeal Refusal To Take Action On Requests Under The VCDPA/CPA/CTDPA:

For Virginia residents, under the VCDPA, if your requests are manifestly unfounded, excessive, or repetitive, we may charge you a reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of complying with your requests, or we may decline to act on the request.

You may appeal our refusal to take action on a request within 30 calendar days after your receipt of our decision. In order to submit an appeal, you may call our privacy toll-free line at \(855\) 749-2283 to request an appeal form, which must be returned within 30 calendar days of your receipt of our decision. Within 60 days of receipt of an appeal, we will inform you in writing of any action taken or not taken in response to the appeal, including a written explanation of the reasons for the decisions. If the appeal is denied, we will also provide you with a method through which you may contact the Virginia Attorney General to submit a complaint. (This appeal process does not apply to Virginia job applicants or independent contractors.)

For Colorado residents, under the CPA, if your requests are manifestly unfounded, excessive, or repetitive, we may charge you a reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of complying with your requests, or we may decline to act on the request.

You may appeal our refusal to take action on a request within a reasonable time period after your receipt of our decision. Within 45 days of receipt of an appeal, we will inform you in writing of any action taken or not taken in response to the appeal, including a written explanation of the reasons for the decisions, or inform you that the response time to the appeal has been extended, along with the reason for the delay. You may contact the Colorado Attorney General if you have concerns about the result of the appeal.

For Connecticut residents, under the CTDPA, if your requests are manifestly unfounded, excessive, or repetitive, we may charge you a reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of complying with your requests, or we may decline to act on the request.

You may appeal our refusal to take action on a request within a reasonable time period after your receipt of our decision. Within 60 days of receipt of an appeal, we will inform you in writing of any action taken or not taken in response to the appeal, including a written explanation of the reasons for the decisions, or inform you that the response time to the appeal has been extended, along with the reason for the delay. You may contact the Connecticut Attorney General if you have concerns about the result of the appeal.

How We Will Verify That It Is Really You Submitting The Request:

When you submit a Right to Know, Right to Access, Right to Delete, or Right to Correct request through one of the methods provided above, we will ask you to provide some information in order to verify your identity and respond to your request. Specifically, we will ask you to verify information that can be used to link your identity to particular records in our possession, which depends on the nature of your relationship and interaction with us.

Responding To Your Right To Know, Right To Access, And Right To Delete Requests

For California residents, upon receiving a verifiable request, we will confirm receipt of the request no later than 10 business days after receiving it. We endeavor to respond to a verifiable request within forty-five (45) calendar days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to an additional 45 calendar days, or 90 calendar days total from the date we receive your request), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing. We will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option. The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable.

For Virginia, Colorado, Connecticut, and Utah residents, we endeavor to respond to a verifiable request within forty-five (45) calendar days of its receipt. If we require more time (up to 45 additional days), we will inform you of the reason and extension period within the initial 45-day period after receipt of your request.

For California residents, we do not charge a fee to process or respond to your verifiable request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, we will tell you why we made that decision and provide you with a cost estimate before completing your request.

For Colorado, Connecticut, and Utah residents, we do not charge a fee for up to 1 request annually, unless the request is manifestly unfounded, excessive, or repetitive, in which case we may charge you a reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of complying with the request, or we may decline to act on the request.

For Virginia residents, we do not charge a fee for up to 2 requests annually, unless the requests are manifestly unfounded, excessive, or repetitive, in which case we may charge you a reasonable fee to cover the administrative costs of complying with the requests, or we may decline to act on the request.

For a request to correct inaccurate personal information, we will accept, review, and consider any documentation that you provide, and we may require that you provide documentation to rebut our own documentation that the personal information is accurate. You should make a good-faith effort to provide us with all necessarily information at the time that you make the request to correct. We may deny a request to correct if we have a good-faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a request to correct is fraudulent or abusive. If we deny your request to correct, we shall inform you of our decision not to comply and provide an explanation as to why we believe the request is fraudulent.

Responding To A California Resident's Request To Opt-Out Of The Selling Or Sharing Of Your Personal Information

We will act upon a consumer request from a California resident to opt-out within fifteen (15) days of its receipt. We will notify all third parties to whom we have sold or shared personal information of your request and instruct them to comply with the request within the same time frame. We will notify you when this has been completed by mail or electronically, at your option.

A request to opt-out by a California resident need not be a verifiable consumer request. However, we may deny a request to opt-out if we have a good faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a request to opt-out is fraudulent. If we deny your request to opt-out, we shall inform you of our decision not to comply and provide an explanation as to why we believe the request is fraudulent.

Responding To A California Resident's Request To Limit The Use Of Sensitive Personal Information

For California residents, we will act upon a request to limit the use of sensitive personal information within fifteen (15) business days of its receipt. We will notify all third parties that use or disclose sensitive personal information of your request to limit and instruct them to comply with the request within the same time frame. We will notify you when this has been completed by mail or electronically, at your option.

For California residents, a request to limit need not be a verifiable request. However, we may deny a request to limit if we have a good faith, reasonable, and documented belief that a request to limit is fraudulent. If we deny your request to limit, we shall inform you of our decision not to comply and provide an explanation as to why we believe the request is fraudulent.

If You Have An Authorized Agent:

If you are a California resident, you can authorize someone else as an authorized agent who can submit a request on your behalf. To do so, you must either (a) execute a valid, verifiable, and notarized power of attorney or (b) provide other written, signed authorization that we can then verify. When we receive a request submitted on your behalf by an authorized agent who does not have a power of attorney, that person will be asked to provide written proof that they have your permission to act on your behalf, and we will also contact you and ask you for information to verify your own identity directly with us and not through your authorized agent. We may deny a request from an authorized agent if the agent does not provide your signed permission demonstrating that they have been authorized by you to act on your behalf.

If you are a Connecticut resident, you can authorize someone else as an authorized agent who can submit a request on your behalf. We may deny a request from an authorized agent if it cannot be verified with commercially reasonable effort that they have been authorized by you to act on your behalf.

California Shine The Light:

The California Civil Code permits California Residents with whom we have an established business relationship to request that we provide you with a list of certain categories of personal information that we have disclosed to third parties for their direct marketing purposes during the preceding calendar year. To make such a request, please send an email support@gather.life or write to us at the address listed below. Please mention that you are making a "California Shine the Light" inquiry.

11. Consent To Terms And Conditions

By using the App, you consent to all terms and conditions expressed in this Privacy Policy.

12. Changes To Our Privacy Policy

As our services evolve and we perceive the need or desirability of using information collected in other ways, we may from time to time amend this Privacy Policy. We encourage you to check the App frequently to see the current Privacy Policy in effect and any changes that may have been made to them. If we make material changes to this Privacy Policy, we will post the revised Privacy Policy and the revised effective date on the App. Please check back here periodically or contact us at the address listed at the end of this Privacy Policy.

13. Consumers With Disabilities

This policy is in a form that is accessible to consumers with disabilities.

14. Questions About The Policy

The App is owned and operated by AutoNation. If you have any questions about this privacy policy, please contact us at support@gather.life or call \(855\) 749-2283.
